

New Pastor

REV. AUGUST F. BOESE

Installed Sunday as the new pastor of Immanuel's Lutheran church in the Settlement was the Rev. August F. Boese. Rev. Boese comes here from Harmony, Mich. Rev. Dennis Mueller, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Burlington and who has been acting as supply pastor for Immanuel's, installed Rev. Boese.

---

Rev. Boese entered the ministry in 1922, after graduating from the Lutheran Seminary at St. Paul, Minn. He has been in active service since that time, being located at Madison, S. D., Lakota, Iowa, Waltham, Minn., and Harmony, Minn., before receiving his call to the Settlement.

The Boese's have a family of seven children. One son, Henry, is with the armed services and is stationed in Illinois; another son, Robert, is in the Samson Air Force Base hospital at Geneva, N. Y., where he has been confined since the third of March. He hopes to be moved to a hospital in Colorado next month. Their third son, Arnold, is in the teaching profession at Mable, Minn. Their oldest daughter, Mrs. Margaret Sikkink, lives near Harmony, Minn., their second daughter, Mrs. Ardis Suhrcke, lives in Sheboygan Falls, Wis., the third daughter, Mrs. Frances Israel, is in Greenville, S. C., and their youngest daughter, Naomi, has been living at home but it leaving tomorrow for Milwaukee, Wis., where she will enter nurses training.

Rev. and Mrs. Boese are at home in the new parsonage of the Immanuel Lutheran church.

---